101.10 Jurisdiction

The UC Santa Cruz campus shall have jurisdiction over the conduct of students and student organizations, which occurs on University property or in connection with official University functions.

In addition, the campus may exercise jurisdiction over conduct which occurs off- campus and which would violate student conduct and discipline policies or regulations if the conduct occurred on campus. For example, the campus may choose to exercise jurisdiction over off-campus incidents where the alleged misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

a) Any violations of the UCSC Policy on Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Stalking or Sexual Harassment or the UCSC Policy on Sexual Harassment.

b) Physical assault, threats of violence, or conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person;

c) Possession or use of weapons, explosives, or destructive devices;

d) Manufacture, sale, or distribution of controlled substances (as defined by the Drug Enforcement Administration);

e) Hate crimes (as defined by local, state or federal law);

f) Hazing;

g) Conduct, which would constitute a felony, including burglary, robbery, theft, etc.; and

h) Conduct which egregiously and/or repeatedly has negatively impacted or constitutes a nuisance to members of the surrounding off-campus community, which violates federal, state or local laws/ordinances; or conduct which severely impacts or strains emergency response abilities in the surrounding community.

In determining whether or not to exercise off-campus jurisdiction in such cases, the campus may consider the seriousness of the alleged offense, the risk of harm involved, whether the victim(s) are members of the campus community and/or whether the off-campus conduct is part of a series of actions, which occurred both on, and off-campus.

102.00 Grounds for Student Discipline

Chancellors may impose discipline for the commission or attempted commission (including aiding or abetting in the commission or attempted commission) of the following types of violations by students, as well as such other violations as may be specified in campus regulations:

identified in federal or state laws or regulations which includes, but is not limited to:

a. b. All other drugs not included in (102.17a) such as: designer or synthetic drugs, hallucinogens/or psychotropic herbs.

b. Being drunk and disorderly, illegally intoxicated regardless of age or driving under the influence.

102.01 All forms of academic misconduct, including but not limited to, cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, or facilitating academic dishonesty; 105.00 Types of Sanctions:

See also sections 105.10 and 105.11 in the University Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations, and Students Handbook for specifics on sanctions and University actions.

When a student is found in violation of University policies or campus regulations, any of the following types of student disciplinary action may be imposed. Any sanction imposed should be appropriate to the violation, taking into consideration the context and seriousness of the violation.

Any timeline established in this section may be extended or modified in the interests of fairness and upon good cause in the discretion of the Associate Vice Chancellor or designee. If a deadline is so extended, all reasonable efforts shall be made to complete the action required as soon as is practicable after the original timeline or deadline.

105.01 Warning: Written notice or reprimand to the student that a violation of specified University policies or campus regulations has occurred and that continued or repeated violations of University policies or campus regulations may be cause for further disciplinary action, normally in the form of Disciplinary Probation, Loss of Privileges and Exclusion from Activities, Suspension, or Dismissal.

105.03 Disciplinary Probation: A status imposed for a specific period of time during which a student must demonstrate conduct that conforms to University standards of conduct. Conditions restricting the student's privileges or eligibility for activities may be imposed. Misconduct during the probationary period or violation of any conditions of the probation may result in further disciplinary action, normally in the form of Suspension or Dismissal.

105.04 Loss of Privileges and Exclusion from Activities: Exclusion from participation in designated privileges and activities for a specified period of time. Violation of any conditions in the written Notice of Loss of Privileges and Exclusion from Activities, or violation of University policies or campus regulations during the period of the sanction may be cause for further disciplinary action, normally in the form of Probation, Suspension or Dismissal.

105.05 Suspension: Termination of student status at the campus for a specified period of time with reinstatement thereafter certain, provided that the student has complied with all conditions imposed as part of the Suspension and provided that the student is otherwise qualified for reinstatement. Violation of the conditions of Suspension or of University policies or campus regulations during the period of Suspension may be cause for further disciplinary action, normally in the form of Dismissal. When, as a result of violations of the student conduct code, a student is suspended, the fact that the discipline was imposed must be posted on the academic transcript for the duration of the Suspension (See Section 106.00). Suspension may be imposed only with the written affirmation of the Associate Vice Chancellor for non- academic cases involving graduate and undergraduate students, the Vice Provost/Dean of Undergraduate Education for Academic Integrity cases involving undergraduate students, and the Dean of Graduates Studies for Academic Integrity involving graduate students.

105.05(b) Stayed (Deferred) Suspension: The imposition of Suspension (see Section 105.05) is deferred pending adherence to, or fulfillment of, specified conditions. Failure to comply fully with all conditions of Stayed Suspension shall result in the imposition of Suspension.

105.06 Dismissal: Termination of student status from the University of California for an indefinite period. Readmission to the University shall require the specific approval of the Chancellor of the campus to which a dismissed student has applied. Readmission after Dismissal may be granted only under exceptional circumstances. When, as a result of violations of the student conduct code, a student is dismissed, the fact that the discipline was imposed must be posted on the academic transcript for the duration of the Dismissal (See Section 106.00).

Dismissal may be imposed only with the written affirmation of the Associate Vice Chancellor for non-academic cases and the Vice Provost/Dean of Undergraduate Education for academic cases.

105.07 Stayed (Deferred) Dismissal: The imposition of Dismissal (See Section 105.06) is differed pending adherence to, or fulfillment of, specified conditions. Failure to comply fully with all conditions of Stayed Dismissal may result in the imposition of Dismissal].

105.061 Restriction from designated areas of the campus for a specific academic term or terms. Violation of any condition set forth in a written Notice of Restriction or violation of University policies or campus regulations during the period of the sanction may be cause for further disciplinary action.

105.07 Exclusion from Areas of the Campus or from official University functions: Exclusion of a student as part of a disciplinary sanction from specified areas of the campus or other University-owned, -operated, or -leased facilities, or other facilities located on University property, or from official University function, when there is reasonable cause for the University to believe that the student's presence there will lead to physical abuse, threats of violence, or conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person on University property or at official University functions, or other disruptive activity incompatible with the orderly operation of the campus.

105.08 Interim Suspension (Interim Action): Exclusion from classes, or from other specified activities or areas of the campus, as set forth in the Notice of Interim Suspension, before final determination of an alleged violation. A student shall be restricted only to the minimum extent necessary when there is reasonable cause to believe that the student's participation in University activities or presence at specified areas of the campus will lead to physical abuse, threats of violence, or conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person on University property or at official University functions, or other disruptive activity incompatible with the orderly operation of the campus. A student placed on Interim Suspension shall be given prompt notice of the charges, the duration of the Interim Suspension, and the opportunity for a prompt hearing on the Interim Suspension. Interim suspension shall be reviewed by the Chancellor or designee within twenty-four hours of affirmation by the Associate Vice Chancellor and if no further action is taken, the interim suspension shall be deemed to be upheld. If a student is found to have been unjustifiably placed on Interim Suspension, however, the University is committed to a policy whereby reasonable efforts are taken to assist an individual who has been disadvantaged with respect to employment or academic status.

105.081 If Interim Suspension (Interim Action) is imposed by a responsible official, he/she shall immediately inform the Associate Vice Chancellor (who has been delegated such cases by the Chancellor), the University Police, and submit a written report on the action to the Associate Vice Chancellor.

105.082 The report shall include the student's name and, if available, address, phone number, e-mail address, and the reason for imposing the Interim Suspension. Within twenty- four hours of the imposition of the Interim Suspension, the Associate Vice Chancellor shall review the information provided by the responsible official. If a student is found to have been unjustifiably placed on Interim Suspension, the University is committed to a policy whereby that student shall not be disadvantaged in employment or academic status. (See Section 53.12 of the Handbook: Emergency Suspension.) If the Associate Vice Chancellor does not affirm the Interim Suspension by the end of the twenty-four hour period, it shall be deemed void and a reasonable effort shall be made to inform the student who was suspended that the Interim Suspension is void. Should the Interim Suspension be voided, that shall have no bearing on University disciplinary proceedings arising from the conduct which gave rise to the Interim Suspension. Any such disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted under the normal procedures provided in these policies.

105.083 A student placed on Interim Suspension which is affirmed by the Associate Vice Chancellor shall be given prompt written notice of the Interim Suspension, of the conduct which gave rise to the Interim Suspension, and of the opportunity for a prompt special hearing on the Interim Suspension. The special hearing must take place within five (5) working days of the student's request for a special hearing.

105.09 Restitution: A requirement for restitution in the form of reimbursement may be imposed for expenses incurred by the University or other parties resulting from a violation of these policies. Such reimbursement may take the form of monetary payment or appropriate service to repair or otherwise compensate for damages. Restitution may be imposed on any student who alone, or through group or concerted activities, participates in causing the damages or costs.

105.10 Revocation of Awarding of Degree: Subject to the concurrence of the Academic Senate, revocation of a degree obtained by fraud. Such revocation is subject to review on appeal by the Chancellor.

105.11 Other: Other disciplinary actions, such as monetary fines, community service, enrolling in classes/workshops, receiving counseling, writing letters of apology, etc., or holds on requests for transcripts, diplomas, or other student records to be sent to third parties, as set forth in campus regulations. In addition to the sanctions noted in this section, other sanctions may be imposed when, if reasonably concluded to be in the best interests of the University or University community.

105.12 Administrative Holds may be placed on students' registration, transcript, diploma or graduation to ensure that students respond to a disciplinary matter, and to enforce certain disciplinary sanctions. These holds may prevent a student from registering or graduating, or from receiving copies of their diploma or transcripts, pending the resolution of a disciplinary matter, completion of sanctions resulting from a disciplinary action or while a sanction of Suspension, Dismissal, or Interim Suspension is active.

105.13 Monetary Fines assessed as part of a resolution are not to exceed $100.00. This limit does not apply to fines assessed for parking violations, library fines, Office of Physical Education, Recreation and Sports (OPERS) recreation fines, student organization fines, or any other services provided by the campus where fines may be assessed. Monetary fines are not restitution (see Section 105.09)

105.14 Stay of Sanction: The imposition of any sanction may be held in abeyance (deferred) pending future conduct or non-compliance with disciplinary sanctions/conditions.

105.15 Academic Sanctions: One or more of the following sanctions may be imposed by the instructor of record for violations involving academic dishonesty (see Appendix G):

a. No credit or reduced credit for academic work in question;

105.16 Student Organization Sanctions: In addition to the above (except for Section 105.15), one or more of the following sanctions may be imposed for student organization violations:

1. Revocation of the organization's registration or removal of the organization's officers;
2. A registered student organization may be sanctioned when a member or members of the organization violated University rules or campus regulations with the knowledge and consent of the organization's officers, or acted in concert with other members of the organization; or
3. Interim suspension of University and/or organizational activities, as deemed appropriate by the Officer of Conduct and Community Standards Office pending the review of alleged misconduct on the part of the organization and/or its members. A student organization may be placed on Interim Suspension and shall be given prompt notice of the charges, duration of the Interim Suspension, and the opportunity for a prompt hearing on the Interim Suspension. Interim suspension shall be reviewed by the Chancellor within twenty-four hours of affirmation by the Associate Vice Chancellor, Dean of Students. This action may occur prior to the issuance of a summons and the temporary suspension shall be limited and reasonable given the reported allegations. This action may also be taken to enforce compliance with sanctions.

106.00 Posting Suspension or Dismissal on Academic Transcripts

When, as a result of violations of the Code of Student Conduct, a student is suspended or dismissed, a notation that the discipline was imposed must be posted on the academic transcript for the duration of the Suspension or Dismissal. Thereafter, notations of Suspension or Dismissal reflected on a student's transcript may be removed as set forth in campus regulations. (See also 105.05 (Suspension) and 105.06 (Dismissal)).
